The Anniversary—Christian Benevolence.

The annual anniversaries of a large number of our great religious and benevolent societies are now being held in New York.

The magnitude of the operations of some of these societies is remarkable. Thus, the American Tract Society reports its receipts during the past year to have been $544,161.43.

Another branch of the American Tract Society, the Boston branch, and which has long made labors for the enlightenment and religious instruction of the blacks a specialty.

Here we have an expenditure of over seven hundred thousand dollars in the single work of publishing and distributing Christian literature.

The American Bible Society reports receipts during the year to the amount of $734,089.14. It has printed during that time, in our country and in foreign lands, 1,240,318 volumes.

The American Home Missionary Society reports the receipt of $212,560.63 during the year. It has employed 846 missionaries in twenty-nine different States and Territories.

These items are sufficient to afford some idea of the vast work that is being performed by these societies. And all this is sustained, or has been built up in the past by voluntary contributions, mainly in small amounts.

So firmly established have these organizations become in the confidence and affections of the Christian public, that their revenues from this source are as reliable almost as though obtained from fixed investments.

No argument for the voluntary principle, as opposed to the union of Church and State, in religious matters, could be stronger than that which is furnished by the activity, zeal, and prosperity of our American churches, and especially in connection with those great religious and benevolent organizations which the American churches have built up.

It is found that the spontaneous liberality of Christian men and women, managing their own affairs in church matters, is a sounder and safer basis to build upon than subsidies from Government, or tithes wrung from an unwilling and reluctant people by the power of the civil magistrate.

Facts, too, such as those brought out by the reports above alluded to, are a sufficient commentary upon the shallow and flippant criticism of the activity and benevolence of the Church, which is so often indulged in. Here are organizations reaching all over our land, and all over foreign lands, carrying light and knowledge to the homes of millions who would be reached in no other way.

The mass of the contributions which sustain this work come in little sums, from here and there and all over the country, from donors whose names are never heralded to the applause of men, who seek no earthly reward, but who are actuated by motives of Christian duty and benevolence alone.

Until those who sneer at the Church can point to a similar liberality on their part, or any similar effort to do good to the masses of the ignorant and needy of their fellow-men, they should preserve a discreet and becoming silence.

The Provisional Governments.

A PRESERVE is being brought to bear, it is said, upon the President, to induce him to restrain the action of the military commanders of the Southern Districts with reference to the provisional civil authorities now in existence there.

The rule of construction, it is urged, should be in favor of the largest liberty to the citizen, and the least possible interference with the civil and social affairs of the community under the law; that a right construction of these Reconstruction laws does not give the military commander the power to depose civil officers at will, and he has no authority to appoint such officers; that under the recent law, when it is shown by the acts of the civil officers that they are not executing, or refuse to execute the laws, the military commander may in some instances turn the subject to be dealt with over to a military commission; that the commander should confine himself strictly within the letter of the law, and permit the so-called "Provisional Governments" to go on disposing of all matters heretofore belonging to the functions of State Governments, except in so far as it is manifest that these civil authorities absolutely conflict with or obstruct the operation of the Military or Reconstruction laws. Such, it is claimed, is the spirit of the Reconstruction act, and the obvious intent of its framers.

But such was not the interpretation put upon this law by its friends or its enemies at the time of its passage. It was intended to give the military commanders full power over these "Provisional Governments." They have no claim to sanctity whatever. They never had an iota of legality, but are mere provisional arrangements, existing by toleration. Whenever they stand in the way of carrying out the work of reconstruction, they should at once be removed.

MARYLAND CONVENTION.—The State Constitutional Convention of Maryland yesterday agreed on a form of oath which declares allegiance to the State of Maryland, and supports the Constitution and laws thereof; giving true faith and allegiance to the United States, and Constitution and the Government thereof as the supreme law of the land, any law or ordinance of the State to the contrary notwithstanding. It further affirms that the taker of the oath will, to the best of his ability, protect and defend the Union of the United States, and not allow the same to be broken up, nor the Government to be destroyed; and will at all times discountenance and oppose all political combinations having for their object such dissolution or destruction. The action is not retrospective and does not disfranchise any who have been Rebels in the past.

UNION POLICE.—The order of General Sheridan directing the Mayor of New Orleans to compose one-half his police of discharged Union soldiers, is one which will meet the hearty approval of all who desire to see peace prevail in the South. By securing this efficient and at the same time thoroughly loyal force, the authorities will have at hand a class of men whose sympathies are all with the Government, and who are not only thoroughly willing, but also thoroughly able, to defend the Union cause. We would desire to see a similar precaution adopted all over the South, and have half the armed militia of every State composed of those Union men who have served in the United States army, and are now residing in the late Rebel section.

DOOLITTLE AND RUSSIA.—It would seem that Russian America will really cost us little or nothing. While the debit side of the account shows $7,000,000 against us, yet the opposite side credits us with the loss of Doolittle, who goes to Russia on official business. If he and Cowan were both to reside permanently in the new territory, the balance would be to the credit side of the account of the United States.

AN INDIAN WAR seems inevitable. The Kiowas have taken up the hatchet, and united with the Sioux and Cheyennes. We hope that General Hancock will make a short and sharp campaign, and settle the matter without resorting to tactics.

COLONEL RANKIN and the Fort Buford garrison are not murdered, at least so General Sherman telegraphs, anything in the Tribune or elsewhere to the contrary. As the report has been repeated and contradicted at least five times, we do not know what to believe.

NEITHER SECRETARY BROWNING nor Hon. S. S. Marshall are dead. Both of these gentlemen telegraph that the rumor is false; and as they are authority on the matter, we gladly correct the error.

GOVERNOR WRIGHT, United States Minister at Berlin, reported dying a few days since, is convalescent, and hopes are entertained of his ultimate recovery.

JERUSALEM.—The British Consul at Jerusalem reports that the population of that city in 1866 was 18,000, of whom about 5000 were Mohammedans, 9000 Jews, and the remainder Christians of various denominations. Two lines of telegraph connect Jerusalem with Europe. The chief native industry is the manufacture of soap and what is called Jerusalem ware, consisting of chapelets, crucifixes, beads, crosses, and the like, made principally of mother-of-pearl and olive wood, and sold to the pilgrims who annually repair to the Holy City, to the number of from 8000 to 8000. The principal imports from England are cotton and colonial goods. Of the former some three or four hundred bales, of the value of from $16,000 to $20,000, are imported annually.

ANTI-RITUALISM.—In order to guard his fold against the ritualists, the Bishop of Manchester, England, now propounds the following queries, among others, to candidates for priest's orders:—"What are the rules of our Church with respect to the bread and wine used at the Lord's Supper, and with respect to the consecration of the elements, and what breaches of the rules have been fallen into by some few clergy?" State the reasons there are against these practices. What restrictions are to be used by the clergy in their ministrations? Give your reasons for reviving the use of obsolete vestments, such as the cope and the chasuble."

A PATHWAY CASE.—A case was tried recently at the Manchester assizes, in England, which involved the right of the Earl of Derby to stop up an ancient pathway on his estate at Prestwich. The plaintiff, a Mr. Winterbotham, obtained a verdict, but a question of law was raised at the trial on behalf of the Earl, to the effect that a private individual could not be a party to such a suit. This objection was raised in the Court of Exchequer, when an application was made for a new trial. The rule calling upon the plaintiff to show why a new trial should be granted was issued, so that the plaintiff's position is not yet quite secure.

RELIGIOUS TOLERATION IN CHINA.—A new Roman Catholic cathedral, said to be a magnificent building, was consecrated at Pekin in January, and in the same month the cornerstone of a new Anglican church was laid at Kin-Kiang by the British consul. A letter from Pekin says that religious temples for different sects are erecting in close proximity to each other—Protestants, Catholics, Anglicans, Greek schismatics, Buddhists, Mohammedans, disciples of Confucius, live side by side, with a perfectly good understanding.

A GREAT FAMILY FESTIVAL.—An English paper says:—Lord Warkworth's coming of age at the end of next month will be celebrated with extraordinary rejoicings at Alwick Castle, the ancient seat of the illustrious house of Percy. The young Lord Warkworth will attain his majority on the 29th proximo, on which day a grand entertainment will be given to upwards of one thousand persons, tenants and others, on the extensive family property in the north. The great tent, constructed by order of the third Duke, expressly for the reception of Queen Victoria and the late Queen Adelaide, and the late Queen of the Belgians, calculated to accommodate upwards of one thousand guests, is to be taken from Sion, Isleworth, to Alwick. The marquee is to be erected on the lawn adjoining the castle, where the whole of the tenantry on the ducal estates are to be entertained.

THE WESLEYANS IN ENGLAND.—The Sunday Schools of the Wesleyan denomination in England are receiving increased attention. The last educational report shows a total of more than 543,000 children in the schools, the number having increased by 127,000 during the past ten years; whilst in the same period the church members, now numbering 331,000, have increased by 67,000.
